The unprecedented political scandals that are being gradually revealed, involving Hillary Clinton, Former FBI Director James Comey, Special Counsel Robert Mueller, and other players and institutions representing the anti-Trump Shadow Government and the Deep State, can be difficult to understand. They represent an ominous cloud that is darkening the skies over the corrupt and toxic Washington, D.C. swamp. Connecting the dots in all of this, as new revelations are reported daily, can become a full-time job.
CLINTONS

He Goes to Chair First; Extra Shocks for Her

The only emotion was displayed by Ethel. As she entered the room, she turned to shake hands with Mrs. Helen Evans, the regular matron, and then, impulsively, drew Mrs. Evans to her, hugging and kissing her for a moment.

Julius was dressed in a white T-shirt and brown pants. Ethel wore a dark greenish-blue-sitting printed dress and both were wearing brown loafers.

For Julius, the last walk was comparatively short. For Ethel, it was long.

Only 40 Feet Away.

Just before the electrocution, Julius was placed in one of the half dozen pre-execution cells only 40 feet from the chair. Ethel remained in her cell in the condemned women's section—some 200 feet from the chair.

Had she died first, there would have been a chance for a last goodbye as she passed her cellmate cell. As it was, the cell was empty—and her husband dead—when Ethel went on her last walk.

The only three newsmen permitted to witness the dual execution—the first daylight executions in the memory of Sing Sing—were returned from the death house at 8:25 P.M. to brief 38 other newspapermen on the deaths.

Walking the last mile with both eyes in addition to guards at many points, was Rabbi Irving Kaufman, chief chaplain. For Julius, he recited the Eleventh Psalm, intimating "Though I walk in the valley of the shadow, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me."
Intellibridge was a strategic analysis firm in Washington, D.C., founded by David Rothkopf in 1998. Senior management at Intellibridge included former Clinton-era National Security Advisor Anthony Lake. Intellibridge's assets (including Putnam Security Monitor) were purchased in 2000 by Eurasia Group, the political risk consultancy.

The Carnegie Endowment office in Washington, D.C., is home to eight programs: The Nuclear Policy Program, Russia & Eurasia Program, South Asia Program, Democracy & Rule of Law Program, Kids Program, Energy & Climate Program, Middle East Program, and Europe Program.[32]

Garten Rothkopf is an international advisory firm that helps leaders capitalize on transformational trends in energy, climate, risk, and the global economy.

Garten Rothkopf employs a distinct set of capabilities at the intersection of economics, markets, technology, and policy to systematically identify unforeseen risks and unconventional opportunities.

Independent researchers have done a count in the Federal Courts and have discovered that anywhere from 4200 to 6000 sealed indictments are pending. The first to be un-sealed was a State Senator from Massachusetts.

A. STS-Content Map of a Human Chromosome

![STS-Content Map Diagram]

B. YAC Isolation and Contig Assembly

![YAC Isolation Diagram]

FIGURE 1 General strategy for constructing STS-content maps. (A) A physical map corresponding to a region of a human chromosome is represented with STSs as landmarks (depicted as unique symbols). Each STS consists of a short DNA sequence that can be specifically detected by a PCR assay employing two oligodeoxynucleotide primers. (B) A YAC-based STS-content mapping scheme is depicted schematically. A YAC library, consisting of YAC clones of various sizes and unknown compositions of STSs (indicated as open symbols), is screened for a subset of available STSs using a PCR-based screening method. For each group of isolated clones, only the STS whose corresponding PCR assay was used to perform the library screen is known to be present in the YACs (indicated as filled-in symbols). However, the isolated YACs can then be tested for the presence of additional STSs as well as sized electrophoretically. The resulting information can be used to establish the overlap relationships among the clones and to assemble a YAC contig, from which an STS-content map can be abstracted. In the example illustrated, the relative order of the STSs as well as some information about the spacings between them could be deduced. Of note, STS5 could not be included in the STS-content map, since YACs bearing that STS were not isolated from the library. Subsequent isolation of the depicted STSS-containing YACs using the corresponding PCR assay would be one route toward expanding the contig and placing this STS on the map.

JEFFREY GARTEN
After leaving the

Monroe, Ford and

Carter administrations in a variety of foreign policy and economic positions, he then went on to Wall Street, becoming a managing director of Lehman Brothers and the Blackstone Group.
At Lehman, he specialized in sovereign debt restructuring in Latin America. He also lived in Tokyo and directed and expanded the Asian investment banking business for that firm, including overseeing some of the largest international corporate restructurings of the era. At Blackstone he worked in the financial advisory and mergers and aquisitions arena. He then became the Undersecretary of Commerce for International Trade in the Clinton administration where he focused his efforts on trade and investment deals in “Big Emerging Markets” such as China, India, Indonesia, Brazil, Mexico and Turkey. From 1996 to 2005, Garten was dean of the Yale School of Management after which he stayed on to teach full-time. His courses have included “Leading a Global Company,” “Wall Street and Washington,” “Managing Global Catastrophes,” and “The Future of Global Finance,” and he has led study trips for students to China, Singapore, Dubai, and London.
In 2005, Garten and a colleague, David Rothkopf, set up Garten Rothkopf in Washington to provide strategic advice for global companies, inventive organizations and governments. Hättenwärt! In 2010 the firm was sold to The Slate Group, a subsidiary of Graham Holdings, Inc.
Garten sits on the boards of directors for several organizations, including the Aetna Corporation, CarMax, Inc., and Credit Suisse Asset Management (a number of mutual funds). He is also on the advisory board of Miller Bucklin, a financial restructuring firm, and he is a trustee of The International Rescue Committee. Previously he was a director of Standard & Poor’s (‘The Board of Managers’), Calpine Energy Corporation, Alcan Inc., and The Conference Board, and he served on the international advisory boards of Toyota and the Chicago Climate Exchange, CDMX
